THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1858.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TOWNS OF UTAH. Salt Lake City contains about a third of the population of the Territory, and has a great many good and some elegant buildings, the principal of which are the Tabernacle, where all religious meetings are held; the Council House, the Temple. (now in course of erection.) Court-House, Young's two mansions, nineteen public school-houses, together with the costly houses erected for the elders,

The next settlement north is called Sessions, eight miles from Salt Lake City, and contains several good bouses. It is situated on the main road. The houses are not compactly built, but extend nearly five miles.— This settlement contains the richest lands in the Territory.

Farmington comes next, a very pretty little town, the county-seat of David county .-It contains about 1,000 inhabitants.

Eight miles north is Keyeville, containing about the same number of inhabitants; here is some excellent arable land and a fine stock

Weber river is about eight miles further north. On it have been built two forts, called East and West Weber forte, containing about five bundred inhabitants each. They are very pleasantly situated.

Ogden, one of the principal cities of the Territory, is about three miles from Weber. It has many costly buildings. North of Ogden City, about two miles, is a large well-built fort called Brigham's Fort .-

It has about 7,000 inhabitante. Northeast of this, three miles, is Ogden Hole-a very pleasant locality, surrounded on all sides by mountains, with the exception of the entrance. It contains about five hundred inhabitants.

North of the "Hole," twelve miles, is a well-situated fort, called Willow Creek Fort. In this vicinity there is fine agricultural land, and the heaviest crops of wheat in the Territory are raised here.

Five miles north is Box Elder, or Brigham's city, being about eight miles south of Bear river. This city is very handsomely situated, It is built upon a plain, about two hundred feet above the level of Bear river. It is inhabited principally by Danes and Welsh, whose houses exhibit considerable skill in their construction and taste in arrangement.

On Bear river there are two small settlements, and further north there are two others. These are in Cache and Malad valley, where the stock belonging to the "church' generally were kept.

All these cities and forts are to be laid in aches at the command of the Church, and the poor people have given themselves to the work of destruction with all the confidence and firmness of faith which ever characterises religious fanaticism. - Corr. Alta Cul.

A HANGMAN'S BILL.

A Dutch journal recounts that at the be ginning of the last century the city of Amsterdam was in the babit of employing the Haarlem executioner, and that with a view to save travelling expenses it was unually contrived that a good many executions should be fixed for the same day.— The following bill, showing the amount earned by this fortunate and pain staking functionary on December 17, 1712, is preserved in the archives of Ameterdam: "To beheading a man, 15fl.; to hanging another, 6fl.; to breaking a man on the wheel, 9 blows, at 3fl. the blow, 27ff; to hanging the same individual afterwards; 6ff; to banging two others, with swords stuck in their heads, 18fl.; to hanging four more, at 6ff. each, 24ff.; to hanging a youth, 3fl.; to hanging two men and placarding their breasts, (N. B. The placarde appear to have cost nothing.) 12fl; to heads, 9fl.; to putting a man in the pillory, 6fl: to branding a man in the back, 6fl.; sundries, 24fl.; for my assistants, 12fl.; for ropes, &c., 276fl."

The oration of Ex-Governor Pollock before the literary societies of the College of New Jersey, at Princeton, on the 28th ultimo, was a production of high merit, and well received. The subject was "The Characteristics of the Age, and Demands upon the American Scholar," and the learned speaker was often interrupted by hearty applause. His description of a specimen of "Young America" was received with much laughter. He said: "The young man of the present day assumes the dignity of manhood before the down upon his chip has given place to the beard; he considers parental athority a dogma of the dark ages be looks upon parental discipline, in the good old fashioned way, with more horror than the tortures of the inquisition; and thinks any prescription whatever from those older than bimself an unwarrantable usur pation of his rights."

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADEL PHIA .- A benevolent Institution, estabished by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.—To all persons afficted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, &c.

The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved mod-

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness. by

OUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE CAPITAL OVER $250,000, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

The charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others than any other company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one. eighth of the amount he would otherwise have o pay: or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE This company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 16th of March, 1854, since which time over five thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses .-Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patrouage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe that by prudence, caution and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety, not surpassed by any Company in the U. States.

All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company, H. W. Thomas, Christopher Neale,
